DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER-1908

MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1914.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

Mary had a little arm,
Fair as a lily, I trow;
She was vaccinated the other day,
And you ought to see it now.

The Lexington tobacco market will close down next week.

MRS. JOHN S. ASBURY.

At the Christian Church last night Mrs. John S. Asbury delighted her hearers with her helpful talk on Spiritual Ideals.

She will speak again at 4 and 7:30 o'clock tonight.

IT IS NOW!

This morning is a regular old timer. It snows and the people enjoy it. The rural route mail carriers are happy. No tough pulling today. Last week several of the carriers had to get teams to help them out. But today the boys get a well-deserved rest.

LET UNCLE SAM GIVE YOU THE FACTS

Government reports show the steady output of coal during the last few years has made the dealers push for wider markets. We are going to get more value—your trade—by giving you a greater value for your money. You will never get out of debt unless you buy wisely.

NEGRO WOMAN FORGER

Lands Behind The Bars—Couldn't Work Bad Check on Your Uncle Andrew Jackson Boyd.

Lillie Washington, a colored street denizen of Maysville, Saturday afternoon at the C. & O. depot tried to pass a $5.15 check with Col. T. D. Slattery's name signed to it and a $10.50 check with her father's, John Breckinridge's name forged to it.

The woman bought three tickets to Indianapolis from the obliging ticket seller, Mr. Andrew Jackson Boyd, and tendered the checks in payment.

Mr. Boyd knows a fraud when he sees it and holding the tickets, telephoned for the police. Officer Bloomhuff arrested the woman and she is now in the county jail and will go over the road for three years.

MARCUS F. KEHOE

Slated to Succeed Clarence Mathews as Postmaster at Maysville

14 Kentucky Republican P. M.'s to Give Place to Democrats

Yesterday's papers contained the following Washington dispatch:

Democratic Federal office-holdings in Kentucky will within the next few weeks, be substantially increased by the appointment of postmasters for fourteen of the most important offices in the State. In these places Republicans will all be succeeded upon the expiration of their terms or ousted for departmental reasons. A partial list of their probable successors follows, the stars indicating those already recommended by Senator James and the various Congressmen:

Maysville, Marcus Kehoe; London, "E. W. Hackney; Somerset, R. L. Brown; Paducah, John Berry or George Wallace; Frankfort, "Rush Hughes; Versailles, "J. T. Wilhoit; Paris, "R. K. McCarney; Paintsville, W. P. Mayo; Henderson, "Spalding Trafton; Hardinsburg, "John O'Reilly; and Scottsburg, "P. E. Bradley.

The other offices to be filled are Carrollton, Lancaster and Mt. Sterling.

Mr. James acted in the London case today, and next Tuesday Representative W. J. Fields will recommend Kehoe for the Maysville office. There Clarence Mathews had served sixteen years on February 16, and, according to the frequent ruling of the Postmaster General that 4 years constitute a full term, Mathews has already served four full terms. Taking advantage of this ruling which was first secured by Senator James in the Danville, Ky., case, Mr. Fields will press the recommendation of Kehoe on the Postmaster General. He called at the department today, but, owing to the absence of the high officials, was forced to delay settlement of the case until next Tuesday. Kehoe is a brother of former Representative J. N. Kehoe, and when appointed will speedily be confirmed by Senator James. J. N. Kehoe was in Washington today in behalf of his brother's candidacy.

Postmaster Mathews who has held the Maysville office for 16 years, on May 1, 1912, was commissioned for another four-year term. Now it remains to be seen if the Democrats will oust him now or permit him to serve out his full term.

FOR IT'S—
PLOWING TIME
IN OLD KENTUCKY

And We Are Right Here on the Job With a Full Line of Plows and Repairs

Ready to supply your every want. Such names as "Oliver," "Syracuse" and "Eagle," the latter made by the James H. Hall Plow Co., this city, are too well known to you farmers for us to say more. All we say is "Come in and buy. You are very welcome."

Mike Brown's Plow Harness

Needs no recommendation. You farmers know that the auctioneer's "this is a set of Mike Brown's hand-made harness" at sales is enough to make the second-hand harness sell for more than was paid for it when it was new. It's a fact. We are still making good Harness and want to sell more this year than ever before. Come in.

THAW'S CASE WILL GO TO SUPREME COURT.

Concord, N. H.—The last hearing in the United States court for the district of New Hampshire, in the matter of Harry K. Thaw, was concluded. William T. Jerome, who opposed Thaw's petition for a writ of habeas corpus, and for admission to bail, asked for permission to file supplementary briefs, and was given ten days to do so. Thaw's counsel will reply ten days thereafter. Judge Aldrich then will render his decision, and then appeal will be taken immediately by one side or the other to the Supreme court of the United States.

The "Golden Jubilee" of the Knights of Pythias was brought to an end in Washington with the Pythian ball.

Children's DRESSES!

Our spring styles have arrived and are attracting great attention. The manufacturer of the largest line of children's dresses in New York has confined his line to us exclusively. He knows just how to coax into such garments the youthful cut and unique features that give these dresses their charm. There are so many models in our store, all so differently developed, that we couldn't possibly make you see them all by picturing them in words. Visit our store this week and bring the young girls along. Let us dress them up in some of our choicest models. The early buyers will get the choicest selections. Sizes, 2 years to 17.

Prices 50c to $7.50.
